Dear James Broughton:

New York is just an hour and ten minutes from Pittsburgh so you will have no trouble with quick and easy coming and goings, I trust!

We took the liberty of booking your flight leaving New York at 10:20, arriving here at 11:30 so that you would be here in time for a press interview at 1:30. (we're half an hour from the airport) If your unable to make this, just change it and let us know.

Stan's pleased with the film he shot this time. I'll tell you more about it when you get here.

We look forward very much having you here.

Most sincerely,

Sally F. Dixon (Mrs.)
Film Coordinator
