Dear Peter Kubelka:

Congratulations on your new film! We are eagerly awaiting it in Pittsburgh.

I am just now finalizing the spring schedule at the Museum, and would like to propose the following, based upon your "two day appearance" presentation:

1. A screening of Monument . . . and your complete works at the Museum on Tuesday, March 29. For this the honorarium is $500. There are no additional travel funds, but you would be welcome to stay with me and my family while you are here.
2. An analysis and in-depth discussion of your work on Wednesday, March 30, at the Pittsburgh Film-Makers. I have talked with Bob Haller about this, and he will be writing you soon about the details.

These dates would work best for both our organizations, and I hope they are convenient for you. Please let us know as soon as you can.

I look forward with excitement to meeting you and to seeing Monument . . .

Best regards,

Bill Judson
Curator of Film
