Dear Yvonne Rainer:

This is in reference to your appearance at the Carnegie Museum of Art on October 16, 1974. Could you please send me some photographs or negatives of yourself (performing or otherwise) which we could use in our publicity for your performance here. Also a brief description of your new performance piece would be appreciated, along with biographical data. I will need this information for the program notes and poster display. Please indicate exactly what you will be presenting on the evening of the 16th. We need this information as soon as possible.

Sally Dixon and I both look forward to meeting you.

Sincerely,

Jean L. Rowlands
